THE

PARLIAMENTARY REVIEW.

Contents of the Third Volume for the Session of 1833.

THE PARLIAMENTARY REVIEWER.

House of Commons, June 20.

Page

Petition from Westminster against the House and Window Tax . 1

House of Lords, June 21.

Possession of Algiers by the French, and Colonization of Africa . 3
Discussion respecting the Collection of Irish Tithes . . 3

House of Commons, June 21.

Petition of Society of Friends against payment of Tithes, by Mr. Lennard 5
Petition for Prevention of Cruelty towards Animals, by Mr. R. Grant 6
Petition against Flogging in the Army and Navy, by Mr. Buckingham . 6
Irish Church Bill in Committee—Discussion respecting the proposition of Mr. Stanley to omit the 147th Clause, relating to the application of monies arising from the sale of perpetuities . 7 to 16

House of Lords, June 24.

Protest of Lord Eldon against the Local Courts Jurisdiction Bill . 17

House of Commons, June 24.

Irish Church Bill in Committee; objections urged against by Mr. Hume 19

House of Lords, June 25.

The Earl of Ripon introduced the resolutions on Colonial Slavery . 22
Objection of the Duke of Wellington thereto . . . 24

House of Commons, June 25.

Motions of Mr. Ruthven for reduction of Taxation . . 26
——— Buckingham respecting flogging in the Army . 26
——— H. L. Bulwer ——— Reduction of Public Expenditure . 27
——— F. O'Connor respecting Poor Laws for Ireland . 27
——— F. O'Connor ——— Repeal of the Union . . 27
——— Buckingham ——— Impressment of Seamen postponed 28
Absurdity of rule, requiring but twenty Members to make a House . 28
Roman Catholic Irish Marriage Bill . . 28
Scotch Burgh Reform Bill 28
Jewish Emancipation Bill carried through the Committee . 29

House of Commons, June 27.

Mr. Finch's motion for the suppression of Political Unions . . 65
Mr. Halcomb's motion for the revision of the Poor Laws . . 67

House of Commons, June 28.

Petition of Newsmen of London against the Post Office Clerks . 68
Petition of Merchants of Liverpool for equalization of duties on Sugars 68
Petition from Manchester, in favour of free banking . . 68
Colonel Torrens's proposition to postpone the Bank question till next Session 70
East India Bill read a first time . . . .

Page

House of Commons, July 1.

Bank Charter Resolutions 72
Lord Althorp's improvident arrangement with the Bank commented on 78

House of Commons, July 2.

Mr. Buckingham's motion for a Select Committee to consider the practicability of reducing the National Debt, by its conversion into terminable Annuities, lost by a majority of 19 . . . 81
Mr. Barron's Resolutions respecting the Tithe System in Ireland 102
Mr. Hume's motion for the building a New House of Commons lost 102

House of Commons, July 3.

Bank Charter Resolutions carried 103
Mr. Clay's amendment that the Bank should do the Public Business gratuitously 103
Sir H. Parnell on the improvident bargain made by Lord Althorp 103

House of Lords, July 4.

Lord Lyndhurst's motion respecting the Thellusson Property . 129

House of Commons, July 4.

Morning Sittings proposed to be confined to the Orders of the Day 131
Report on the Irish Church Bill considered 133
Mr. Tooke's motion for a Charter to the London University withdrawn . 133
Mr. M. Philips's motion for continuing the Inquiry by Committee into the Proceedings of the Liverpool Election carried . . 137

House of Lords, July 5.

East India Charter Resolutions introduced by the Marquis of Lansdowne 138
Lord Ellenborough and the Duke of Wellington opposed them . 142

House of Commons, July 5.

Irish Church Bill in Committee 143
Second Reading of Lord Ashley's Factory Bill, called the Ten Hours' Bill, carried by a majority of 24 against Ministers . . 143
Mr. Rotch's motion for a Committee on Hackney Coaches negatived 144
Bill for the Abolition of Slavery in the Colonies read a first time . 144

House of Commons, July 8.

Irish Church Bill in Committee 144
Mr. Shiel's Clause for reduction of incomes of all future Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland negatived 144
Mr. Shiel's proposed insertion in the preamble, of words declaring that Church Property was Public Property and available for the general purposes of the State, rejected by a majority of 69 . . 145
Mr. O'Connell's proposition to relieve the Bishop of Derry from the deduction of £4000 from his salary, &c., withdrawn . 147
Mr. Lefroy and others opposed the third reading of the Bill . 148
Third reading of the Irish Church Bill carried by a majority of 160 . 149

House of Lords, July 9.

Third reading of the Local Courts Jurisdiction Bill rejected . 146

House of Commons, July 9.

Mr. C. Fergusson's motion on the subject of Poland, . . 150

House of Commons, July 10.

Discussion on the second reading of the East India Charter Bill . 166
Mr. Buckingham's Speech on the Bill, and amendment . . 169

Page

House of Lords, July 11.

Irish Church Bill. Petitions against it; the Duke of Wellington's opinion that the King cannot assent to it by the Coronation Oath . 193
Bill brought in to regulate the Thellusson Property . . 193

House of Commons, July 11.

The Irish Grand Jury Bill 194
Mr. E. L. Bulwer's motion respecting the Policy of Russia withdrawn 194
Dr. Baldwin's motion for a Select Committe to enquire into the evils of Absenteeism in Ireland rejected 194
Dr. Lushington's motion for copies of the Minutes of the Court Martial on Captain Robison in New South Wales rejected . . 195
Lord Althorp's motion for a Committee to investigate the conduct of the Police in the affray in Cold Bath Fields agreed to . . 195

House of Lords, July 12.

Law Reform Bills introduced by Lord Brougham . . . 195

House of Commons, July 12.

East India Charter Bill in Committee 196
Mr. Hume's amendment to limit the Charter to 10 years, rejected . 197
Mr. Buckingham's objections to the principle of the Bill . . 197

House of Commons, July 15.

Discussion respecting the Policeman Popay. . 212
Sir J. Wrottesley's motion for a call of the House rejected . . 212
East India Charter Bill in Committee 212
Discussion respecting the 42d Clause giving the Governor-General, and his Council power to make what laws they please. . . 213

House of Commons, July 16.

East India Bill in Committee 214
Governors of Presidencies empowered to act without Council . 214
Mr. Ruthven's motion respecting Reduction of Taxation and Abolition of Sinecure Places carried by a majority of 9 against Ministers . 214

House of Commons, July 17.

Discussion on the Petition of Captain Aitcheson, Royal Artillery . 218
Discussion on the case of the Sugar Refiners of the Tower Hamlets . 218

House of Lords, July 18.

Adjourned Debate on the Irish Church Bill continued . . 258

House of Commons, July 18.

Discussion on Lord Ashley's Ten Hours' Factory Bill . . 260

House of Lords, July 19.

Adjourned Debate on the Irish Church Bill resumed . . 264

House of Commons, July 15.

The East India Bill passed through the Committee . . 266

House of Lords, July 22.

Bill for regulating the Thelluson Property, passed by 87 to 70 . 267
House in Committee on the Irish Church Bill . . . 267

House of Commons, July 22

Second Reading of the Bill for the Abolition of Colonial Slavery . 268
Report of the Committee of the East India Company's Charter Bill 276
Discussion on prohibiting the continuance of the Salt Monopoly . 274
Jewish Emancipation Bill read a third time and passed

Page

House of Commons, July 23.

Debate on Mr. Tennyson's motion for leave to bring in a Bill to Shorten the Duration of Parliaments 283

House of Commons, July 24.

Debate on a resolution submitted by Mr. Clay for admitting Foreign Sugar for refining in England 288

Bill for the Abolition of Slavery, in Committee . . . 288

House of Lords, July 25.

Discussion on the 117th Clause of the Irish Church Bill 321

House of Commons, July 25.

Mr. Buckingham's motion for the Abolition of Impressment withdrawn at the request of Sir James Graham . . . 328

Mr. O'Connell's motion for calling the Proprietor of the Morning Chronicle to the Bar of the House . . . 323

House of Lords, July 26.

Irish Church Bill passed through the Committee . . 332

House of Commons, July 26.

Mr. O'Connell's motion respecting the Reports in the Newspapers . 333

Petition against several clauses of the East India Bill on behalf of the Company, presented by Mr. Fergusson . . . 333

Third reading of the East India Bill moved by Mr. Grant . 334

House of Lords, July 29.

Attempt to defeat the Irish Church Bill by Lord Winchelsea moving that the Report upon it should be received that day six months . 352

House of Commons, July 29.

Discussion on Mr. O'Connell's motion for calling the Printer and Proprietors of the Times to the Bar of the House . . 353

House of Lords, July 30.

Discussion on the Question of the Blockade of Portugal . 354

House of Commons, July 30.

Discussion on the Money Clauses of the Slavery Abolition Bill . 355

Mr. Roebuck's motion on Education . . . 357

Mr. Charles Buller's motion for Reduction in the Public Expenditure 360

Case of Naroba Govind Outia, a native of India . . . 361

Remarks on the System of "Counting out the House," adopted by Ministers, for the purpose of getting rid of inconvenient motions . 362

House of Commons, July 31.

The Slavery Abolition Bill passed through the Committee . . 364

House of Lords, August 1.

Defeat of the Bill for granting Emancipation to the Jews . . 386

House of Commons, August 1.

Equalization of Duties on the Sugar and Coffee of the East and West 391

House of Commons, August 2.

Second Reading of the Bill for renewing the Bank Monopoly . 397

House of Lords, August 3.

Objections urged to the provisions of the East India Bill . . 401

House of Commons, August 3.

Case of Sir John Key, Baronet, in becoming a Government Contractor 403

Grant of a Million sterling for the payment of Irish Tithe Arrears . 406

Page

House of Commons, August 6.

Proposed Disfranchisement of the Borough of Stafford . . 409
Alleged Abuses in the Establishment of the General Post-Office . 410
Motion for a Repeal of the Foreign Enlistment Bill . . 413

House of Commons, August 7.

Inequality and Injustice of the Tax upon Houses . . 415

House of Commons, August 8.

Motion of Mr. Bulwer for repealing the Stamps on Newspapers . 449
Motion of Major Fancourt for abolishing Flogging in the Army . 452
Disorderly Proceedings of the Leaders of the House of Commons . 453

House of Commons, August 9.

Lord Althorp's Bill for regulating the Hours of Labour in Factories . 454
Mr. Gisborne's motion to defer the Bank Question till next Session 455

House of Commons, August 10.

Continuation of the Discussion on the Renewal of the Bank Charter . 459

House of Lords, August 12.

Second Reading of the Bill for the Abolition of Slavery . . 461

House of Commons, August 12.

The New Factory Bill—Buckingham Palace—Grant for Unpaid Tithes 463

House of Commons, August 13.

Observations of Mr. D. W. Harvey, relating to the Inns of Court 467

House of Commons, August 14.

The House in a Committee of Supply on the Miscellaneous Estimates 46

House of Commons, August 15.

Mr. Buckingham's motion on the Impressment of British Seamen, and arguments in favour of its abolition 513
Origin of Impressment 514
Its Injustice explained—Sir Matthew Decker's opinion . . 515
——— Sir David Brewster's ——— . . 515
King George the Second's Speech in January, 1728, calling the attention of Parliament to the subject 516
Illegality of Impressment—not authorised by any Statute—Lords Camden and Mansfield's Opinions 517
Cruelty of Impressment—Mr. S. Pepy's Remarks . . 517
Deterioration to the Naval Service caused by Impressment . 521
Inefficiency of Impressment—Sir Robert Walpole's Speech in confirmation . . . . . 3?5
Injury to the British Fisheries caused by Impressment . . 525
Pecuniary loss, by desertions, &c. occasioned by the System . 525
Desertions, &c. from May, 1803, to June, 1805, 15,369 men . 525
Expensiveness of Impressment 527
Opinions of great Naval Commanders against the System—Lords Collingwood, Nelson, Exmouth, &c. 530
Impressment unknown in the Navies of all nations . . 532
Remedies proposed by Mr. Buckingham on the abolition of Impressment 533
By enforcement of Acts for competently manning the Merchants' service 534
By a classification of the Seamen of the Royal Navy . . 536
By a registration of all sea-faring men in the Ports, &c. of Great Britain 538
Advantages of the System proposed 540
Mr. G. F. Young, on seconding Mr. Buckingham's motion . . 543
Sir James Graham's objections to the motion, . . 543

Page
Mr. Hume in favor of the motion if modified 546
Sir E. Codrington in support of the motion, and stating the prejudice to the Naval Service by Impressment 547
Mr. Alderman Thompson considered the system contrary to the free institutions of the country 548
Mr. Robinson expressed his dissent to the form of the motion . 548
Captain Elliott in defence of the system of Impressment . . 549
Colonel Williams adduced proof of the hardships inflicted by the system 549
Colonel Torrens's amendment 550
Mr. Chapman and Mr. Cobbett in support, and Mr. Labouchere against motion 550
Mr. Buckingham's modification of his motion 550
Lord Althorp moved the previous question, stating that the abolition of Impressment would at once destroy our Naval superiority . 550
Motion lost by a majority of 5 for Ministers 551

Minority on Mr. Buxton's motion to restrict the period of Apprenticeship to the shortest possible period compatible with the interests of the Slave 371
Minority on Mr. O'Connell's motion to omit in the preamble, those words which recognize the right of the Planters to a property in their Slaves 371
Minority on Mr. Ferguson's motion, that the East India Company should be heard by Counsel at the bar against certain clauses in the East India Bill 372
Minority on Mr. O'Connell's motion for calling the Proprietor and Printer of the Times to the bar of the House . . 372
List of Members in the House when Sir J. Sebright moved that the House be counted, the motion under discussion being on the subject of extensive Reductions in the Public Expenditure . . 372
Notices of motions given by Mr. Buckingham for next Session . 473
List of the majority and minority on Mr. Buckingham's motion respecting the Impressment of Seamen 552
List of Ministers and Ministerial adherents who voted against the motion respecting Impressment 553
Notice of motions by Mr. Buckingham for next Session . 553

THE POLITICAL INDICATOR.

Surface and Population of the various countries of the Globe . . 105
The Ministry—Abandonment of their Pledges—Prospects of the future 109
Restoration of Poland—Legality of her Revolution—Right of Britain to interfere 221
Proportion of Population to Surface in various countries of the Globe . 417
Review of the Speeches of Sir J. Graham, Captain Elliott, and Lord Althorp, on Impressment 554
Parallel between the evils of Impressment and the characteristic features of Slavery 556
Legality of Impressment as founded on common law and immemorial usage refuted—Judge Foster's further opinions given . . 557
Lord Chatham's opinions against Impressment. . . . 560
Opinions of the Public Journals on the Question of Impressment . 566

THE COLONIAL INVESTIGATOR.

Case of John Lewis, a runaway slave, who, after serving in His Majesty's Navy, was re-enslaved on his return to Grenada . . 33
Public Meeting for the formation of a British African Colonization Society 225
On the best means of promoting the civilization of Africa . . 233
Unjustifiable extravagance of the grant of Twenty Millions . 433

Page

THE ORIENTAL INVESTIGATOR.

On the evils inflicted on India and England by the Monopoly of Salt . 429

THE COMMERCIAL ENQUIRER.

On the Commercial importance of Poland as an independent State . 50
The East India Monopoly—American Export Trade to China . 113
The East India Monopoly—American Trade with China . . 292
Opening of the Commerce with India and China . . 476

THE RETROSPECTIVE TRAVELLER.

Turkish Bridal Procession, 41—Funerals, 42 Fires, 43—Dervishes, 44, Amusements 47
Armenian History and Religion 177
Greek Architecture and Sculpture 180
Excursion from Smyrna to Vourla, and Clazomene . . . 300
Voyage from Smyrna along the Coast of Asia Minor to Egypt . 486

THE LITERARY EXPOSITOR.

Domestic Architecture, by F. Goodwin 54

THE SCRIPTURAL ILLUSTRATOR.

Genesis, Chap. 5 to 9. History, Progress, and effects of the Great Deluge 493

THE FRIENDLY COMMUNICATOR.

Letter to Earl Grey on the subject of the Irish Church . . 56
Benefits to be derived from the adoption of an Income Tax . . 61
Plan for the emancipation of our enslaved fellow subjects . . 62
State of Public Feeling—Gloomy apprehensions of some sudden change 62
Defects in the Government Plan for the New Banking System . 64
Second Letter to Earl Grey on the subject of the Irish Church . 122
Remarks on the Plan of a Country Gentleman, for colonizing Canada with Polish Exiles 126
Third Letter to Earl Grey on the subject of the Irish Church . 184
Evils arising from the want of a due Promulgation of the Laws . 189
Enormous Rentals paid to the Church for working Collieries . 190
Sketch of the Speakers and Arguments in the recent Debate on Poland 244
Fourth Letter to Lord Grey on the subject of the Irish Church . 247
Condition of the Manufacturing Interests—Taxation and Revenue . 252
Danger of Hasty Execution of Sentences of Death . . 253
Abolition of Imprisonment for Debt—Former precedent for this measure 254
Critical Examination of the Designs for a New House of Commons 305
Extravagant Amount of the Compensation to the West Indians . 310
Power of Great Britain not crippled by her National Debt . . 311
Proposed Establishment of a Metropolitan Board of Trade . 313
Remarks of a West Indian on the Bill for the Abolition of Slavery . 314
Tax paid by Consumers of Coals to the Clergy of Durham . 317
Evils of the Bank Monopoly—Advantages of a Silver Standard . 317
Letter to Lord Grey on the Religious and Moral Statistics of Ireland 442
On the Abolition of Infanticide and Ghaut Murders in India . 378
Letter to Lord Grey on the Religious and Moral Statistics of Ireland 442
Proceedings of the Hull Association of the Friends of Poland . 497
Public Meeting in London on behalf of the Exiled Poles . . 501
Letter to Lord Grey on the Religious and Moral Statistics of Ireland 502

THE LEGISLATIVE RECORDER.

Page

Minority on Mr. Stanley's motion to strike out the 147th Clause of the Irish Church Temporalities Bill . . . 30
Minority of 59 on Mr. Gillon's amendment against the Disfranchisement of Burgesses, in the Election of Scotch Corporations . 104
Minority of 10 on Mr. Finch's motion against Political Unions . 104
Mjaority and Minority on Mr. Buckingham's motion respecting the reduçion of the National Debt by its conversion into Annuities. 112
Minority of 87 in favor of Mr. Sheil's amendment on the Irish Church Bill as to the Property of the Church being Public Property . 174
Majority of 164 in favour of the second reading of Lord Ashley's Factory or the Ten Hours' Bill 175
Minority on Lord Althorp's second resolution making Bank Notes above £5 a legal tender 176
Majority of 90 on Mr. Ruthven's motion for reduction of Taxation and Abolition of Sinecures 219
Minority of 97 on Mr. C. Fergusson's motion on the subject of Poland 220
Minorities on two Amendments of Mr. Hume's on the East India Bill . 220
Report from the Select Committee of the House of Commons on Public Walks 365
List of the Minority on Lord Howick's motion "That no apprenticed Labourer should be liable to be flogged unless convicted of conspiracy and mutiny" 368
Minority on Mr. Tennyson's motion to Repeal the Septennial Act . 369
Minority on Mr. Buxton's Amendment to reduce the apprenticeship of Slaves to three years 370
Minority on Mr. Buxton's motion to reserve the payment of Ten Millions out of the Twenty voted to the West India Proprietors, until the apprenticeships of their Slaves should be entirely terminated . 370

THE FAMILY ENTERTAINER.

On Slavery . . .	Algernon, Sidney, and Locke	40
High and Law Whigism .	Lord Molesworth . .	40
On Simplicity of Style .	Blair . . .	40
State Church . . .	Selden . . .	53
Wisdom and Beauty of Creation .	Dr. Burnet . .	190
The decline of Monarchies .	Sully . . .	224
Supposed estimate of Man by Angels .	Addison . . .	232
Time and False Happiness Contrasted .	Addison . . .	255
A Royal Law . .	Selden	255
The Love of Flowers . .	Anonymous . .	299
Sudden Wealth and Gradual Accumulation.	Chambers . .	318
Commendams . . .	Selden . . .	318
On Ben Jonson . . .	Dryden . .	318
The Defects of the Senses .	Bacon . . .	379
Denunciation of Barbarous Sports .	Erskine . . .	379
On Creation . . .	Jameson . .	379
Poetical Epistle to the King . .	A. T. H. . .	380
Law of Arragon . . .	Robertson . .	432
A Golden Rule . . .	Olla Podrida . .	474
Wit and Judgment . . .	Ibid . . .	474
Epigram from the Greek .	Sir W. Jones . .	474
The Advancement of Learning	Bacon . . .	475
History . . .	Roger Coke . .	475
Different incitements to the acquirement of Knowledge . .	Bacon . . .	485
The advantages of a Country Life	Vaughan. . . .	492